

The logo to the left has a cool modern look and actually could be a strong contender - if it were licensed to us.

This logo to the right is a great use of its negative space, however overall the style is a bit too traditional for us and the font is not great either.

All of the logos below have modern looks to them that we enjoy.

